Spread the Detroit Style Pizza Revolution

In 1946 on the corner of Conant and Six Mile Road (Buddy's Rendezvous) in Detroit, MI Gus Guerra, crafted the world's first Detroit Style Pizza. So, what makes Detroit Style Pizza so unique? It's Square! This is because in true Motor City fashion, authentic Detroit Style Pizza is baked in square, blue steel automotive parts pans. Traditionally, deck ovens are used for baking at temperatures in excess of 550 degrees. We start with a light, airy, crispy and chewy Sicilian crust. Then, line the crust with plenty of toppings. Next, we mound plenty of freshly shredded aged white cheddar, whole milk mozzarella and brick cheese all the way to the edge of the blue steel pan to create the famous caramelized crust. Finally, we drizzle on a thick layer of signature red sauce that trickles through the bubbling cheese. One bite of the true, authentic Detroit Style Pizza says it all: it's like nothing you've ever tasted before. DARE TO BE SQUARE!

Only, The Finest Quality Ingredients

We begin with Pendelton high gluten flour, milled from northern hard red spring wheat. In preparation, we use the Biga method developed in Italy to add complexity and flavor to our dough. This method requires a starter, allowing a mix of flour and water to rise first at room temperature for 24 hours. The Biga is then mixed with flour, yeast, malt, extra virgin olive oil and sea salt in a Hobart mixer, and then hand rolled. The hand rolled balls are placed in dough boxes and into a walk in refrigerator for 48 hours before we push them into the perfect crust. Vine ripened Stanislaus tomatoes grown, harvested and packed in Modesta California are sourced to make our pizza sauce. Finally, we use whole milk Wisconsin Grande mozzarella freshly shredded every day. Our pies are baked in an old-fashioned Blodgett oven at 550 degrees Fahrenheit for 7-10 minutes on a fire brick floor. Please be patient as our skilled pizza artists, craft your "out of this world", made to order pizza.
